About the property

Tucked away within a sought after village location, this beautifully presented, well sized and well placed maisonette comes to the market and ready to move straight into!

Offering both communal gardens and allocated parking, the property is well maintained on the external grounds too.

Walking distance of some stunning countryside including that of Borthwood Copse, an ancient woodland and the main cycle track to Newport and Sandown, perfect for getting around on two wheels whilst taking in the islands' wildlife.

Stepping inside, the property has a light, bright and airy feel. The well sized spaces are met with excellent presentation.

This first floor maisonette offers a spacious lounge and separate kitchen area, along with two bedrooms and bathroom.
