About the property

Situated in the heart of Newport, this charming shop and maisonette comes to the market offering the FREEHOLD to purchase. The fantastic, High Street location is perfect for local business whilst being extremely convenient for day to day living too.

Positioned toward the Carisbrooke end of Newport town centre, the property is walking distance of local parks, supermarkets and the main island bus station. As well as all that, the shops, cafes and restaurants in the town too.

The ground floor consists a large shop front with kitchenette and separate WC. The shop offers a front street facing area with a further area to the rear offering a more private space. The first floor and second floor consists of a well presented maisonette with recently fitted kitchen. The property comes with plenty of character and period charm ensuring it offers a very cottagey feel. There are two bedrooms and a family bathroom to suitably cater the home.
