About the property

Tucked away just moments from Ventnor's characterful high street, this beautifully presented three-bedroom Victorian home perfectly balances period charm with modern living, all set within one of the Isle of Wight's most desirable coastal towns.

The location is hard to beat. From the front door, you're within easy walking distance of Ventnor Esplanade and its scenic coastal paths, with glorious routes stretching towards Bonchurch and Wheeler's Bay in one direction and on to the ever-popular Steephill Cove in the other. Independent shops, cafés and restaurants are quite literally a stone's throw away, making day-to-day life both convenient and delightfully sociable. You can understand why this property has been a happy home for some 46 Years.

Inside, the property is in exceptional condition throughout. The ground floor offers a generous lounge ideal for relaxing or entertaining, alongside a separate dining room currently used as a study—perfect for home working or flexible family living. To the rear, a stylish and thoughtfully designed kitchen/breakfast room forms the heart of the home, finished to a high standard and benefiting from a second access leading directly out onto Albert Street.

Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms, two of which are spacious doubles. The principal bedroom is particularly impressive, enjoying excellent space and the added luxury of a private balcony. A recently refurbished shower room completes the first floor, presented immaculately with a sleek, contemporary finish.

Outside, the house enjoys a pretty and private garden—an inviting retreat with ample room to relax or potter. A large storage area, currently used as a workshop, provides excellent additional space for hobbies, storage or creative pursuits.

Whether you're looking for a permanent residence or a stylish second home by the sea, this charming Victorian property offers comfort, character and an enviable coastal lifestyle in equal measure.
