About the property

The ideal family home, situated in the heart of Newport, with excellent links to amenities and the High Street too. This spacious property offers well sized living spaces, bedrooms as well as outside space.

Within walking distance of the Newport town centre with its array of shops, cafes and the main island bus station. The property also sits within touching distance of a convenience shop, local school and children's playground. For the weekly shop, the islands' Asda Superstore is a couple of minutes' drive away.

Internally, the property is well sized in every aspect with good sized living spaces, light and airy accommodation with the potential for the next owner to make their own mark. The first floor offers three family sized bedrooms with a separate WC and Bathroom.

Outside, the property comes with both front and rear garden. The rear garden space is sunny and offers enough room for both children and adults to enjoy.
