About the property

A beautiful period home nestled away in the heart of the bustling Victorian, seaside town of Ventnor. Not only is the beach on your doorstep, there are plenty of places to walk with the coastal paths to the east taking you up to the Smugglers Haven, whilst the westerly coastal paths take you through to the popular Steephill Cove and Botanic Gardens.

There are plenty of cafes, restaurants and quirky shops to discover scattered around the town, with great transport links with a main bus route just around the corner. Whilst the home doesn't come with parking, there is plenty of space in nearby roads or a permit could be sought from the IOW Council for the car parks which are close by.

The home itself has some outside space in terms of a courtyard area, with your own private entrance. Internally, the home is 'upside down' with two double bedrooms and a modern bathroom occupying the ground floor.

The first floor plays host to a spacious, characterful lounge, along with a modern fitted kitchen. There's the added benefit of the additional cloakroom on this floor as well.

There is another entrance/exit via the bridgeway, which takes you through the Costura Lodge building.
