About the property

A superb opportunity to purchase a large residential property with commercial High Street premises too. This central town centre position is perfect for local businesses whilst the accommodation above is spacious with a lovely outlook to the sea front.

Sandown is a town renowned for its golden, sandy beaches, lively seafront and busy summer season. The High Street offers an array of shops, eateries and localised amenities, whilst there is regular public transport services including the Island Line train system and the Southern Vectis bus service.

Currently a jewellers, a pillar of the Sandown High Street for the last 35 years. The current owners now wish to retire. The ground floor offers a shop with plenty of storage at the rear for stock, a workshop area and utility/kitchenette with WC.

The maisonette is well sized and split over three levels. The living spaces are sociable with a kitchen/diner and the a bay windowed lounge overlooking the English Channel. Further to this, there are three bedrooms complimented by a family bathroom. The outside space holds quite the surprise with a double garage and parking.
