AGENT'S COMMENTS

A wonderful stone built cottage, set with stunning views, fantastic walks on the doorstep and in fabulous condition throughout. This charming property sits in a quiet location, offers amazing countryside views and is likely to be extremely popular.

Set in the South Wight village of Wroxall, this property offers a village position with Wroxall Downs within touching distance plus the red squirrel cycle track that links through to Newport and Shanklin. Wroxall offers a good local shop, pub and primary school too. Its close proximity to Ventnor and Shanklin mean you can reach the beach in a short drive also.

Off road parking to the front, the outside space here definitely comes alive in the rear garden. A fantastic space with numerous features. The owner has made the addition of a Studio/Office which provides a well sized area to work from home.

Internally, the property is beautifully presented. The care and attention has ensured this property presents itself superbly. The large lounge/diner area is perfect for socialising, whilst there is a modern kitchen and utility area too. The first floor comprises two double bedrooms plus a stunning bathroom.

The combination of location and presentation here is also met with a far-reaching countryside view which looks out onto the Worsley monument and Appuldurcombe House combined with rolling hills.
