About the property

A wonderful period property in the heart of Newport, this spacious, characterful and well placed family home is perfect for anyone wanting convenience on their doorstep and the advantage of parking for three vehicles, whilst also benefitting from a home that is superbly sized and pulls on the heart strings with its period features.

A handsome house from the kerb, the property offers plenty of individuality with its intricate brickwork and detailed façade. The house doesn't disappoint internally either, the current owners have done much to retain the charm and personality that you would hope for in a property of this age.

A grand entrance with a decorative porch and detailed flooring throughout the hallway are the first features you notice. There is two very well sized reception rooms on the ground floor with a large kitchen to the rear and a further utility area and WC. The current dining room also benefits from a shower room en-suite which would make for a ideal downstairs bedroom if required.

The first floor comprises of three very well sized bedrooms including a master en-suite with bay window. The space is bright, well decorated and perfect for the growing family.

Outside, the property offers the desirable commodity of parking for three vehicles and a private rear garden which is easy to keep up together and well maintained by the current owners.
